

35. I FEAR BANKERS MORE THAN STANDING ARMIES

President Thomas Jefferson said, "I sincerely believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies" (see bibliography #10, p. 20).

President Andrew Jackson said that the bank "would be more formidable and dangerous than the naval and military power of the enemy" (see bibliography #7, p. 308).

Founding Father James Madison said, "History records that the moneychangers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit, and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling the money and its issuance" (see bibliography #8, p. 79).

If the government issued United States Notes interest-free and if the banks could not create money, then the banks could not create wars for profit, running up huge government debts in order to receive the interest. If banks could not create money, they could not create recessions nor depressions, nor obtain the liens on the nation's assets for free. Wealth buys favor with the media. It can be used as social engineering to change the way that people think. The media elects lawmakers. The lawmakers know that, if they wish to be re-elected, they must vote the way of those who financed them into office. In effect, the one with the most money wins. If the banks create the money, they win. They control the nation.

One day after I was done conducting seminars for certified public accountants, I talked to a man who identified himself as the head accountant of a very large bank. I said, "You know all the bank loans you grant are a fraud."

Without any hesitation, he said, "I know."

I said, "Are you afraid of going to jail?"

Again, without hesitation, he said, "No."

I asked him why not.

He said, "The banks control the judges. We have them elected. If they want a job, they have to cooperate with us. We control both the media and who is elected to office. The only thing we fear is the population learning what we have done to them. If they wake up, we will have to flee the country." He laughed.

I will never forget what he said. This is why courts have thrown out perfectly good cases against the banks. The banks can control the judges, but not the brochures. Brochures and small books were used to begin the Revolutionary War and fight the British. China used brochures to win a nation for communism. Brochures will now be used to set America free from the banks.

If a foreign army invaded America and won the war, they would control the country, create new laws, and we would pay taxes to them. What is the difference between a military army conquering us and the banks obtaining the nation's debt and property, forcing us to pay them interest on all the money they create? The banks received the spoils of war without firing one shot or spending one cent. The banks control the government, the lawmakers, the judges, and the police. The fact is, they used judges and police to obtain forty percent of the nation's income tax as interest on the national debt and the liens they obtained. Either you give the conquerors your labor for free or they foreclose and take your assets. It is much easier to conquer and control a people who think they are free. The media has labeled those who object to this as anti-government so that other citizens will not join them in the fight for their freedom.

A nation is not sovereign if they do not have a treasury printing sovereign money, interest-free. The banks proved this by foreclosing on the national debt, making Congress trustees of the national bankruptcy. The creditor owns the nation in bankruptcy. This is the secret not disclosed in court. We will be set free if we make the banks repay our loans to them, or make the private banks pay the debt due us. All we have to do is spread the truth to enough Americans in order to compel them to correct the problem. We cannot be conquered if the truth is revealed. It is up to every American to get the truth out so we can correct the problem. If even half of all Americans understood this and agreed to help correct the problem, we would be free Americans, refusing to be conquered.
